

HH Subhag Swami Maharaja

Visits Melbourne Mahaprabhu Mandir

24-28 April 2019

His Holiness Subhag Swami met His Divine Grace A. C. Bhaktivedanta Swami, founder Acharya of the International Society for Krishna Consciousness (ISKCON) in 1970 in London. Srila Prabhupada, personally trained him for a period of seven years in the scientific understanding of Vedic Culture which aims at enlightening the general mass, especially the student community and the scholarly minded intellectuals about 'the Ultimate Reality' and 'the meaning and purpose of the human form of life. He was formally initiated by Srila Prabhupada in 1971.

Based in Mayapur for 34 years, he served the mission in different ways. Having been appointed as the chairman of 'Bhaktivedanta Swami Charitable Trust', he looked after the renovation and maintenance of many pastime places of Lord Chaitanya and His associates all over Navadvipa Mandal. Also, he organized the famous 'Chida-dahi festival of Panihatti' annually for Iskcon devotees. He also continued his travelling preaching around different continents of the world especially Bangladesh, Australia, Singapore, America etc.

Srila Prabhupada gave His Holiness specific services of translating Gaudiya Vaishnava scriptures & Prabhupada's books. Also Srila Prabhupada ordered him to preach Krishna Consciousness all over the world. His Holiness has translated some Vaishnava Scriptures from Sanskrit and Bengali into English. Also he has translated Srila Prabhupada's books from English into Bengali including Krishna, the Supreme Personality of Godhead, Teachings of Lord Kapila, Prayers to Queen Kunti, Easy Journey to Other Planets, Matchless Gifts, Teachings of Lord Caitanya, Isopanishad, Nectar of Instruction and On the way to Krishna. Some of his other translated Vaishnava scriptures are Prema Pradipa, Advaita Prakasha, Ananda Vrindavana Campu, Chaitanya Mangal etc.

Thu 25 April	7.30pm – Pastimes of Lord Caitanya	Temple
Fri 26 April	7.30am – Srimad Bhagavatam class	Temple
Sat 27 April	7.30am – Srimad Bhagavatam class	Temple